BONNIE'S BAKING BUNCH
By AJ Top Chef Bonnie Shaikun

DO YOU ENJOY BAKING COOKIES? We could sure use your help. We are going to be making large quantities of cookies for 92Y, Movies & More, and many other events for which AJ needs sweets. So, if you have a creative cookie recipe or would like to help bake, we invite you to join us!

I thought that we would be overwhelmed without two of our key bakers in the kitchen. We miss them very much, but fortunately several more people have joined us, and they have been great. We have been baking for Selichot, Break-the-Fast, Simchat Torah and of course our Kiddush lunches. We are thrilled that Bonnie Toborowsky will be back in town for a short period of time, and she has promised to bake. That is devotion! A BIG THANK YOU goes to Georgia Goldman, Lois Dunner, Phyllis Shaikun, Jenni Katcher, Heidi Bennett, Tiffany Lesher, Hayden Devine, Diane Richter, Sherry Kaufman, Nancy Blodgett and Eleanor Halbauer. For information on joining Bonnie's Baking Bunch, contact Bonnie Shaikun at 458-5359 or email bshaikun@adathjeshurun.com.

FREE MOVIES AND MORE AT AJ!

Movie Matinee will be returning to AJ in September, with a new title, "Movies and More!" In addition to movies, other presentations will be offered.

Sept. 17th Four of television's greatest hits: "Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy's Thanksgiving Show," "The Life of Riley" with William Bendix, "Fibber McGee and Molly" and "The Halls of Ivy" with Ronald Coleman. All of these shows originated from early radio.

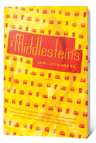

Sept. 24th "Larger Than Life" with Carol Channing. This presentation captures the magic and vivacity of this icon. It is both a rare journey inside Broadway's most glamorous era, and a whimsical look at an inspiring and always entertaining American legend.

Oct. 8th "Meet John Doe" is brilliantly directed by Frank Capra and stars Gary Cooper, Barbara Stanwick, Edward Arnold and Walter Brennan. Pure cinematic pleasure!

Oct. 22nd "Marty" is a touching story about two lonely people who have almost resigned themselves to never being truly loved. Starring Ernest Borgnine.

All shows begin at 3:00 p.m. at Adath Jeshurun and are open to the community. Please join us!

NEWS FROM THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES
By AJ President, Arnold J. Zegart

Can you believe the High Holy Days are here already? Unfortunately, because they are so early, it appears that we will not be finished with our outside entrance canopy/plaza in time. We have had many unfortunate delays such as drainage problems, an unusually wet and rainy spring and summer, delays in stone preparation and other glitches. So be prepared for some inconveniences, but rest assured we are doing everything possible to minimize the disruption. I think you'll find the end result will be well worth the wait and inconveniences. On a brighter note, I'm almost positive that our entrance "WOW WALL" of Judaic art will be in place to welcome all. Also our Memorial Alcove is now completed with the final installation of the memorial tablets containing the names of our loved ones of blessed memory.

There was an article in February in the "Washington Jewish Week" that posed a serious question that caught my eye. It raised the issue, "Are you a "freemium" or a "premium" shul user?" Fortunately, we have many "premium" users of our synagogue, our generous members who ensure that the synagogue, our clergy, our educators, our programs and our staff are excellent, available, creative, responsive and accessible.

Most people don't realize that our dues only cover a little over 60% of our operating budget. We all need to appreciate that it requires a great deal of financial support to keep the synagogue doors wide open and available to all, seven days a week, on demand, and fully staffed. We are fortunate at AJ to offer a full range of services that include providing Friday evening and Saturday morning Shabbat services, Kiddush lunches every Saturday and holidays, studying with our rabbi and cantor, lectures including the 92nd Street Y series and minyan services twice a day, every day.

We also offer a reduced dues schedule to those who are truly also in need who have been financially affected by the economy. We want to be open to all and it is our duty that those that can help, sustain us so we can be open and available to all, regardless of financial circumstances. "We are family" at AJ, so all I ask is to do your share and more if you can.

Shalom to all,
Arnold J. Zegart

ORDER A LULAV AND ETROG FROM USCJ

The United Synagogue Book Service is offering lulav/etrog sets as low as $30 each + shipping. AJ members will be able to order their sets online and have them delivered directly to their homes. This will enable members to select the set they desire as well as the spending category they can afford. Additionally, members will have the convenience of having door-to-door delivery service. Sukkot begins the evening of September 18th. To place your order, visit www.uscj.org. Click on Book Store in the upper left-hand corner. In the search box, type Lulav. Scroll down to see the four selections that they offer, and add your selection to your cart. Click Checkout. Click the message showing in green font that says: REGISTER (click here if you don't have a username and password). Provide the requested information, and place your order.

ATTENTION ALL PARENTS OF AJ COLLEGE STUDENTS

AJ would like to keep in touch with our college students while they are away at school. Please provide your child's contact information to the synagogue office. Each student will be subscribed to the email edition of our monthly newsletter, The Messenger, so that they may stay connected to their shul. Additionally, Rabbi Slosberg and Cantor Lipp each have Facebook accounts and are happy to "friend" all of our students. In this way, we can continue to support our college students and remind them that they will always have a home at Adath Jeshurun. Please e-mail bshaikun@adathjeshurun.com with your child's name and email address. We look forward to staying connected with your college kids!
